max planc was a flipping genius I know some painters that wanted to sleep with him black body, physicist his friend made movies that started riots in France he kind of looked like Frankenstein imagine it me crucified with a shovel oh electric pharaoh, I know you dream of snow golf cart, ez-go, cigarette smoke, coffee steam vases, windows ha and coke bottle figures inanimate objects talking, pajama fire locusts on your windshield the rain'll wash it off a ship can wreck in a drop of my blood my heart can't break it pumps like a muscle mona lisa wants outta the louvre she wants to be the tramp who sleeps in the doorway of houses

I see time, hes got a pencil and a pen for a leg and his mustache tells the time band aids with dorito stains the sun is a blazing lollipop hallucinations, mc Escher on my muscles I walk into a room, no one says anything they just smile I'ma pig bladder punching bag watch the spit splatter my lips are a hammock here's his friend he sees giraffe's on fire his moustache was like a tv antenna he said there is nothing more charming in the world then censorship geniuses believe in magic and don't ever want to die he's dreaming of Venus shes on a 36 ft bed now he's on fire in his egg built palace living still life knife his friend said
I wanted to destroy humanity but it didnt need help

(AC)

you see planc's theory agreed with experiments of the entire electro magnetic spectrum unlike classical wave theory science and god have already met, I met science yesterday

(Time)

what will you say to god he can't be spoken to he can't be spoken to
