

And One "Love And Fingers"

Mother's boy
Small and shy

He's a boy in decay
A man of middle age
Wow I think he looks like his mother
All his life a fashion show
A hard man's job - oh no
With a dress in a coalmine - no

Mother's boy
Small and shy

Somebody knew
(Somebody knew)
Somebody knew that moving down there's

Love and fingers

So he left his motherland
To find a metalband
Now on bravos brand new cover
I can't understand
He's every fathers lover

Mother's boy
Father's toy

Somebody knew
(Somebody knew)
Somebody knew that moving down there's
Love and fingers
