"Mirror In Your Heart"

The party's going on
You cry when they gone
Cause invitations are lying
When music is dying (quietly)
You're counting the years
You're counting rhe days
Cause the rage of the beauty's is Stronger than duty's (can't you see??)
It's only human that you cry
It's only human that you catch the lies
Touch your body touch the fragile part
But don't break the mirror in your heart
Emotional toys
Come into fashion
When you're down on your knees
They will show the disadvantages of Passion
