He said it only takes a year
One thousand storys
(depression comes - depression goes he said)
Why don't you open up your eyes
My head is burning
(emotion comes - emotion goes he said)
He promised sun - he send the rain
Wake up I'm falling
(illusion comes - illusion goes he said)
Why don't you leave me when I'm falling
Why don't you open up your eyes
Why don't you see my head is burning
He use to be my Warrior these days
Covering in glory
(a dreamer comes - a dreamer goes he said)
Should I lie, should I cry, should I fly or die
I think it's time to stop pretending pain
(the winner comes - the winner comes my friend)
