Mommys little girl ran away from home
Spent 150 bucks on the cheapest car in town Got some cigarettes and she checked the liquor store Got something to eat and hit the floor

One night she joined this club and met this guy named jim
He asked for her name she said k-lynn

Spent the night together then she bought a baseball bat
Went back to his house to kill the fucking jerk Took all of his money and she grabbed something to eat
Walked right out the door to go and hit the street

One night she joined this club and met this guy named bill

Won't you come to the other side she said
No i've got better things to do
