Jesus isn't listening
As His therapist I've encouraged Him
To leave it at the altar
And try not to bring it home
Suggest He have a nice vacation
Prescribe a little medication
Take two of these at Passover
And slide into a coma

Your great field of visionary Booberry
It doesn't mean a single thing to me
One gin and tonic - The occasional leap
Never hurt anyone or anything

Jesus is just visiting
Off of the record - Unofficially
He's picking at His breakfast
Says He's feeling kind of low
The war it wages endlessly
The fee of responsibility
Lost another one at the nexus
For all you out there keeping score

Your great field of visionary Booberry
It doesn't mean a single thing to me
One gin and tonic - The occasional leap
Never hurt anyone or anything

Jesus isn't listening
He just one day up and dropped everything
Was last seen leaving Texas
For the Gulf of Mexico
Where the sun - It smiles ubiquitously
I heard it on damned good authority
He built a little steeple
Where He calls some kick-ass bingo

Jesus isn't listening
