Hey I miss you more and more
Just watched you walk back out my door for the last time
You're lovin' me
I know your heart's still beatin'
And yet it's breakin'
I know you know I'm feelin'

I see it in your smile
I hear it in your name
My eyes are closed I'm surround by you
Won't you come back again
Won't you come back again

Near a week goes by nearly every day
I know you're always with me just not in every way
This time with you makes me feel like I'm in heaven
But as you leave my side
I got a part of you that you ain't havin'

I see it in your smile
I hear it in your name
My eyes are closed I'm surround by you
Won't you come back again
Won't you come back again

There's such a long long way to go
Those countless hours I lay here left alone

Hey I miss you more and more
Won't you come back again
Hey I miss you more and more
Hey baby come back again
Won't you come back again
I need you come back again
