I've checked the mail box
But it's all the same,
I won't ask about it anymore.
I just had another crazy day
And you know, your letters make me strong.

But don't worry, baby... I'm O.K.
I can handle it till 9 p.m.

Cause when the sun goes down
And everyone is gone
You're my door, my only open door.

I've prepared so many things to say
But wehn I talk to you my voice is numb.
So I'll keep writing letters till I'll break
That's the only thing that makes smile.

But don't worry, baby... I'm O.K.
I can handle it till 9 p.m.

Cause when the sunt goes down
And everyones is gone
You're my door, my only open door.

Don't let me down
Cause when the sun goes down
And everyone is gone
Your my door, my only open door.
Don't let me down
Cause nothing helps me more
Than just a thought from you
You're my door, my only open door.

When the sunt goes down
And everyone Ã's gone
You're my door, my only open door.
