Lonely lonely lonely Monday morning
Informer dem pon every corner, alright alright yeah
Lonely lonely lonely Monday morning
And I didn't have no company, alright alright

Police them come an' now they blow down me door
One him come crawl through, through my window
So, then they put me in the back the car at the station
From that point on me reach my destination

When the destination reached, it was the east

Whipped down me pants, looked up me bottom
Can't take the pressure man me can't take the pain
So, babala babala boom a me say release the chain

Lonely lonely lonely Monday morning
