But I tried and I sighed he didn't listen to me, I felt that way still I tried and I sighed he wouldn't understand me, I felt that way but you're so young and you don't get me now I feel so guilty and you are chocolate brown chocolate brown, I can't play not too long, I will make it up to you chocolate brown still I learn and I learn there's so much to think about you so much to lose but it's just fine and you don't see it now don't make me guilty please don't chocolate brown chocolate brown, I can't play
chocolate brown
