Look, now its over but the thoughts of you go on nothing here, nothing left at all oh, oh and oh
how I swore i've never, feel like this again but then you, then you broke a trait

Oh no, it's there any reason i should walk away is it wrong, is it wrong to want to stay and I know if I had the choice i've never let you go do you know, do you really want to know ahhhhhh ah ahhhh

Now, now the thoughts of you just circle in my mind hard to find, you were really hard to find oh and I though, though I swore I never feel like this again oh no, I cant take it anymore

Because I know if I had the choice i've never let you go do you know, do you really want to know and i didn't think, didn't think I'd think about you in this way well really, you really made my day ahhhhhh ah ahhhh

Now, now its over but the thoughts of you go on
oh, oh and oh
how I swore i'd never, feel like this again
ah, ah ah ah, ah ah ah, ah ah ah ah
