Seems like yesterday we were 16
We were the rebels of the rebel scene
We wore Doc Martens in the sun
Drinking vintage cider having fun
We were drinking vintage cider having fun
It wasn't often that we fought at all
It wasn't often...
It wasn't often that we fought at all

We wore Doc Martens in the snow (We will never know)
Paint our toenails black and let our hair grow (We will never grow)
What I am now is what I was then (We will never know)
I am not more acceptable than then
I am not more acceptable than then
It wasn't often that we fought at all
It wasn't often...
It wasn't often that we fought at all
It wasn't often...
(repeat 5x)

Seems like yesterday we were 16
We were the rebels of the rebel scene
