Forces pull you this way, that way
You don't know where you are going
Way ahead looks so confusing
You don't know if you can hold

There's a forest to get through
And all the stars want to guide you
So let your instincts fly and you'll be fine
Let the clouds and sky follow your mind

Don't let the pressure go
Don't let the pressure go
Let the pressure go

There's a forest to get through
And you know that you're wanted too
And forces pull you this way, that way
You don't know where you are going

Now you feel the pressure in your mind
'Cos there's so much to look for and to find
It all slips away from time to time
Let it go, let the panic fall behind

Don't let the pressure go
And let the pressure
Don't let the pressure go
Don't let the pressure go
