I can feel you breathing down my neck with every breath i take.
A voice to echo 'round my brain there to remind me how to
Lose it all, open up a void, lose it all.
Always there breathing down my neck.
Always one step behind me.
Always there to remind me.
I'll feel your arms around me.
I'll taste your blood inside me.
Lose it all, open up a void, lose it all.
Always there breathing down my neck.
