Translations

It's probably because I have a lot of fear, like it always has been Always hidden behind your shadow, I couldn't be seen so I was always one step behind you

Even when tears trickle down, you only look at the sky
Am I a cloud?

*Walking in place to you
I laugh alone and I'm crying again like this
I'm a sad sunflower in the shade
That's right, I only look at you

You're looking somewhere else, why is it her?
A familiar love story is too hard for me because it's only my own imagination

When I fall into a deep sleep and close my eyes, you're next to me
I don't want to wake up

Walking in place, to you I'm Nothing and no one, but I hope that my prayers will become a reality
I'll only wait for that moment

Just for one day if I could be not me, but her then Even if I have everything to lose, if only I could do that then

*Walking in place to you
I laugh alone and I'm crying again like this
I'm a sad sunflower in the shade
That's right, I only look at you

Walking in place to you
I came this far
Is it not me? Why not?
Talking to myself, I cry once again
