(I'm here if you see me)

she's got a song in her head and she'll sing to me she's got a laugh that reminds me of why she's in love with me she'd never let show she was lonely in case it had frightened me she was carpet and stone, independent, alone but this love always shone around me every time, oh waltz away dreaming till your day begins again free from the seasons and this state I'm in and oh, I can't hold it all under one love it was so long ago when we danced in the streets now you fly like an eagle above while I waltz away anyway

and I'm waltzing my days away searching for this woman I love

(I'm here if you see me)

she had a history, joy and pain, and she chose to leave she had a thousand and one photographs that you would not believe she'll come to you in disguise, she's there in you children's eyes still our mother, she's still your wife so let her waltz away dreaming till your day begins again, oh yeah free from the reasons and this state I'm in and oh, (trust me) I can't hold it all (she ain't going anywhere) under one love (trust me, she told me, when you're ready she'll be there) it was so long ago (no, don't let go of her) when we kissed in the streets now you fly like an eagle above while I waltz away

then I'm waltzing my days away

searching for this woman I love

(and the moment you see me, I will live in your life) (we will walk through my garden, I will see through your eyes) waltzing my days away (and the moment) I was in despair (you see me) till she found me there (I will live) every grown man cries (in your life) with his mother's eyes
(we wi
