Another month's past
I thought that we'd last
And you'd say things
That makes me break glass

So silence's what gets me
To things that won't change me
And honestly

Marry me
Today is not my last
But seeing you from day to day
So far away
Makes me want to make sure you will
Stay
It doesn't matter anyways
Doesn't matter if we don't talk
As long as we don't hate each other
Let just try to get by another
Year

So run
To places you can hide
That's all we do
That's right we're through Anything to
Make you want to laugh

And here
We're at the place we met
I can't believe it's
Five years now since we began
I don't want this to end

Marry me
Today is not my last
But seeing you from day to day
So far away
Makes me want to make sure you will
Stay
It doesn't matter anyways

Doesn't matter if we don't talk
As long as we don't hate each other
Let just try to get by another
Year

Maybe now is not the time
Fate will tell us when we'll die
And if all goes right
Some day I will see you with some other guy

I know we're young and what not
Naive is what they'll call us
But they don't Know anything at all

Marry me
Today is not my last
But seeing you from day to day
So far away
Stay
Year
