Is now the time to say the goodbyes and the thank yous?

Is now the time to fade into the bluest of the blue blues?

Oh, it'll feel bad for a while, they say
And the worst night is the first night alone...

Oh what a thing, oh what a thing we had; everything.
See?

Oh what a thing!
Nothing was wrong, no, 'till you were gone and I was alone.

Is now the time to say: "I guess we just ran out of breath"?
Is now the time to say: "Baby this ain't no matter of life and death"?
But that is not true and I can't lie to you my love
Plus, I ain't talking when you're walking away...

Oh what a thing, oh what a thing we had; everything.
See?

Oh what a thing!
Nothing was wrong, no, 'till you were gone and I was alone.

Oh tell me,
Was it too much of a good thing, baby?
Oh, I would do the same mistakes
Or did you have enough of the perfection maybe?
Oh, I would do it all over again...

Because, oh what a thing, oh what a thing we had;
everything. See?
Oh what a thing!
Nothing was wrong 'till you were gone, 'till you were gone

So, baby so long. I love you.
