you'll get no odds on what it needs it takes it as it finds its got no time for hearts scars or excuses so when it all came down to a little bit of luck for 25 seconds it could have got fucked up chucked in a bag
seeing it from the bottom of the river from the train to the place where it all went pear shaped chucked on a plane it all went egg shaped
chucked in a bag
seeing it from the bottom of the river
just takes it as it finds got no time for if's or but's or maybe's (five miles down the road)
