i'll see the dreams unfold
i'll see the doors unlocked the dreams just blown like dust the door slammed in your face a twinkle in a strangers eye strangers face, familiar smile the dreams go sailing by pass slowly out of sight and it's a long way down a short hello a long goodbye
strangers face, familiar smile
in the twinkle of an eye the comfort of a smile the stories to be told the days that passed you by bad moon on the rise don't know why it's a short hello a long goodbye
and it's a long way down
