scapegoat bullshit eyes don't even know you're going sideways stained through it all stroll up to the counter with your pen and your ticket with your money in your hand on and on and on it leads you on add up all the negatives crawl out backwards with an answer scratch the surface you'll find out the truth ain't yours break the skin and you'll find out who pulls the strings on money
