Got to go now
Leave your daughter
Get a life now
Like you oughta
Running errands
Like a postman
Got to leave it all behind
(chorus)
I think I'm square now
I've gone and got my clothes all creased
I'll hide in my room now
Too embarased to walk along the street
Got to go now
I'll leave my number in your book
But you don't like me
And all your friends think I'm a crook
I get weird look now
As I'm just walking down the street
They're all just staring
And all I can do is act discreet
(chorus)
