It came as no surprise
When you told me of your plans
Everyone was sad
Except for me
You treat me like a clown
Now my world is upside down
I know now your a cow
In a world of pigs and sheep
(chorus)
Everyone knows
That the way to your heart
Is to lie
I am the only one
Willing to give it
A try
You're a cow
But you're all I seem to need
In a world of pigs and sheep
Can you tell me what it was
That made you such a cow
The flock has left the field
Now there's nothing left to steal
Can you tell me what it was
That made you such a cow
Everyone was scared
Of your cruel or devil hair
You though they didn't care
But you were wrong
My nights are all alone
I'm a dog without a bone
We argue on the phone
Then I sing another song
(chorus)
(chorus)
