There's nothing that I can say to make you want To stay here with me forever
There's nothing I can do make you want me Like I need you to, I need you to

Just give me one last chance to say this
Just give me one last chance to say what's on my mind
And I will get it right
If I could only get my head above the water for a moment
(Moment of your time)
But you seem so strong and I can't hold my breath for long Have you ever tried to scream underwater? You'll choke

You said I always sang too loud to sing you a love song
Well I saved my soft voice for the things I really mean You always said I had a hard time saying what's on my mind
Well here it goes: I hate you for what you've done to me

Just give me one last chance to say this
Just give me one last chance to say what's on my mind
And I will get it right
If I could only get my head above the water for a moment
(Moment of your time)
long
choke
You'll choke

When the last word's been said and the last tear's been shed
I will miss you, miss you my friend
And I can't tell you lies Even after all these years I still cry
