Try (Try)
And I promise you I'll try (Try)

And if this a game, well I don't want to play
It means too much to me and you're so far away
But I will wait for you, we can see this through Now it's up to you, please tell me you feel the same way too

A simple touch, the look in your eye, the sound of your voice
They do something to me I've never felt
But I don't ever what to leave Looks like it's happened to me once again, things are over before they started Another good-bye, unless you want to try (Try)
And I promise you I'll try (Try)

And if this is a game, well I don't want to play
It means too much to me and you're so far away
But I will wait for you, we can see this through
way too

A warm embrace, it's been awhile since I've seen your pretty face
If you would let me, I don't think I'd ever leave this place
Every shared night just feels so right when I wake up
With you in my arms, staring into my eyes

Try (Try)
And I promise you I'll try (Try)
And if this is a game, I don't want to play
It means too much to me and you're so far away
But I will wait for you, we can see this through
way
Same way
Same way
Same way, same way too

Try (Try)
And I promise you I'll try (Try)
And if this is a game (Tell me that you'll be waiting)
I don't want to play
It means too much to me (Tell me that you'll be waiting)
And you're so far away (Tell me that you'll be waiting)
But, I will wait for you
We can this through (Tell me that you'll be waiting)
Now it's up to you, please tell me you feel the same way too
