I know it's been a long time, you've lost that look in your eye
The one that told me everything was fine without a word
But now we're standing face to face with nothing left to say
But goodbye to yesterday

I don't know if I can make it
I don't know if I'm that strong I don't know where we went wrong but somehow it's over
In my mind I see you clearly
In my dreams I feel you near me
I want to know, does this feeling go away?

Like shooting stars, we shine and then we fade
breaking the promises we made What about the promises? What about the promises we made?
What about our plans for forever? Did they scare you?
Did you need to get away?

You taught me many things like how it feels To miss someone so bad it feels like part of you is missing
I can tell you one thing, now that you are gone
I never will forget you, you left your mark

I don't know if I can make it
I don't know if I'm that strong
In my mind I see you clearly
In my dreams I feel you near me
I want to know, does this feeling go away?

When I have gone and you've moved on will you remember me?
When I have gone and you've moved on will you

remember me?

breaking
the promises we made
made?
What about our plans for forever? Did they scare you?
Did you need to get away?
