I do not owe you for what for what you have done
I'm not a slave to anyone
Persistent hatred of my black heart
Will bring me all the rewards that I want
You try to stop me with your weakness in prayer
You try to stop me but I cause great despair
Will you ever comprehend who I am?
When your dead you can try it again

I am power here's my plan
All of you will understand
Here's the piece that broke the board
I am power
I'm your Lord

Alone and isolated within your fate
Stricken with pain that I helped create
You wonder why and you try to conceive
You used to deny but you start to believe
Who is this mortal that is inside your soul
That tears you apart while filling a hole?
The endless torment will not stop when you die
You have been blessed and will always be mine

I am power here's my plan
All of you will understand
Here's the piece that broke the board
I am power
I'm your Lord

I am your master
I am destruction
And I bring your fate
I am the balance
The one who creates
And you can't escape
Now listen to me
Violence is near
Now listen to me
Their's no need to fear
I am the answer

Violence is near
