What am I thinking?
What am I thinking?
Here it comes
Here it comes

Thinking is the link
Thinking is the link

There comes a time I guess it's nothing new
All the things I wrote about, done and through Seeing all the people and the way I used to view
Life, death and pain and all the things that got me through
There comes a time I guess I never knew
All the things I wrote and things that pushed me through
Pushing and pushing until you can not push me anymore
Now I'm done, now I've changed
All from a fucken whore

What I am I thinking?
What I am I thinking?
Here it comes
Here it comes

There is this place and another face
Crying and sobbing in the name of the human race
Holding it's hand, crying demands
Making the plans for future of the civilized man
Can you understand? God damn
Energy is deep inside your land
What is your plan?

Will I be the one to wreck this man?

Can you fuck her better than me?

Thinking is the link

Thinking is the link, what am I thinking?

What are thinking as you fuck the other guy?
Watch me die

Watch me die
