Mike Ness/Dennis Danell)

Like an outlaw
I'd lie for you
I'd rob and steal and go without meals and
I'd kick and scream and do time for you
Terrorize this town
For you-for you
Like an outlaw
Until they hunt me down

I'd lurk in the baddest parts of town
I'd wait there for you baby

For you-for you
They'd put a price on my head
Like an outlaw
For you-for you
Wanted dead or alive or painted a bloodied red
I'd kill for you
Like an outlaw
I'd kick and scream and hang for you
For you-for you
I'd go inside and kick some hide and
Bury a man who died
