Well have I come, I'm on a run
Who wants to fight temptation that's no fun!

C'mon and play the games, don't you feel no shame
That's what Eve said to Adam before she came...
Chorus: You can smile now cry later on
You know that it might be wrong
Yet you beg for more, just a little more
But it feels so good like you know it would!
There's damnation and disgrace and guilt rears it's ugly face

There's souls for sale, your gonna burn in Hell!
Stand in line, don't you lose your mind
And if tomorrow never comes, it's just as well...
Try like me to seek your pleasures three at a time

Chorus

Have your hedonistic ways got the best of you?
That's what Eve said to Adam before she came
Feel the pain! I feel it too!
Play the games, don't feel no shame
