Killer smile that you can't deny pure evil without a doubt A Creepshow horror gonna take you for a ride and you know there's only one way out Well you think I'm just a pretty face, boy you think it's gonna be alright Call for your mamma, you better get ready, it's gonna be raining bloody evil tonight Bloody shovel I'll be diggin' your grave
When the devil comes knockin' he'll be calling for you babe

Come on in close boy let me burn you with my desire Shot gun lid will blow you outta your mind
COME ON AND BE MY DEMON LOVER TONIGHT

Come wear my shadow baby so evil that you wanna die
You know you got it comin' right between the eyes well
COME ON AND BE MY DEMON LOVER TONIGHT

Hey boy you wanna treat me right, you say you wanna hold my hand Tell me what you want and keep me up all night and be with me until we're dead Maybe you think I'm just an easy type boy I'm giving up without a fight
You better get ready, you better get it right,
If you're gonna be my demon lover tonight

Come with me and make my world your home
We'll toss these bleeding hearts right out of that door
When night comes rolling in our innocence will sin Better get ready, better get it right,
if you're gonna be my demon lover tonight.
