I always wanted to get there where I am today
Know you be with you, I gotta say I really liked this way
But your nature is a mystery to me
One day you're so kind but the other you play dorky
Maybe you will never learn what a girl wants Maybe this is all a waste of time

Chorus: I always wanted to get on the other side of the door
get to know you
But now I see it's idiotic the pretty outside is a hollow inn where I'll never win
It's hard to understand it's hard to do but finally I say goodbye to you, the little tear in my eye
I gonna let you go

My friends say "Ignore"
My mind says "You can only trust old friends of yours"
But when I see you talking to my no-more-friends
I tear up and remember all those memories
But then I remind my self to be strong
And it helps, all i need is positivity

Chorus

No one else has ever seen you this way before Little tear I am serious search for another cause
I find someone who treads me well Little tear
Chorus

It was a beautiful time too short but I am fine
I gonna walk the line again I gonna forget you silly little tears and you the master of evil I gonna let you be The best for me when I recognize
Bye Bye Bye
