Today I tell you the story of us kindergarden and I had a crush (on you) with a good friend of mine I've lost my mind He behaved like a jerk but he was nice to me I gave him flowers and when I didn't see he tore them apart I've opened my heart We grew up and we all got wise except of me I still lived with a lie Finally at high school I asked him out but he broke me down ohoh

Chorus:

From this moment on I began to understand
From this moment on I began to care Don't you know boy don't you know that I've loved you from my very first day??
I've loved you from my very first day
This feelings for you will never fade away Never oh Never
When I see you with another girl jealousy's taken over me
You want that? Well I want you to know
I've loved you from my very first day

Bridge:

look at your watch and count the years that've passed by for me
I'll never get them back I've wasted my time chasing after you for nothing at all

The mirror in room has seen my cry but I promised it and my reflection
I'll try to smile

repeat chorus (twice)
