sit down stare at the ground ignore all the ones around break my fear down look in the eyes of my haters before they start their offense i make myself bigger so they can't hit me

pre Chorus: say what ya think that dosen't mean you're correct if you're bored please find a hobby

Chorus: This is the day when i've got nothing more to lose when i don't care about anything just about the horizon all i want to reach is satisfaction and i think this is the day when it happens to me yeah it will happen to me just everything i want they call me a pretender but i just want to fix my life they complain about everything if they only knew this is not the best time i hear their words i hear their will but what i think does not matter so they interrupt shout scream but i keep cool pre Chorus: goodbye old me hello new life i need a new start a place to continue

Chorus
i've got to move on being strong maybe i'll remember our songs but i can't promise i'll be ready again to sing along

Chorus

please forgive me that x2
