99 and Life

=====

I'm broken-hearted

I'm a broken man

Driven by anger

On the night I ran.

I had me a woman.

I thought that she'd be true.

Now she's gone and left me

You know her life is through.

Lonely weekends,

Baby, lonely nights,

The judge he gave me

99 and life.

I wish she could be here

Only if she only could

Instead she's laying

In a puddle of blood

She was my baby.

I thought she'd be my wife,

But I killed my baby

I killed her with my knife.

Lonely weekends,

Baby, lonely nights,

The judge he gave me

99 and life.

All alone I'm sitting

In my prison cell

The Lord only knows now

I'm in a living Hell.

The rest of my life now

In this penitentiary

The Good Lord above now

Please have mercy on me.

Lonely weekends,

Baby, lonely nights,

The judge he gave me

99 and life.

Lonely weekends,

Baby, lonely nights,

The judge he gave me

99 and life
