"I Am Your Shield"

Your hand in mine, you feel so secure
My old life resigns, for a love so pure
I am your shield, when darkness reveals it's ugly self
I am your shield, nothing could ever remove from your side

Frail dependence, your smile reveals innocence
I pledge my devotion, not just empty emotion
I am your shield, when darkness reveals it's ugly self

I am your shield, nothing could ever remove from your side

Laughing, learning, loving, living
Screaming, crying, singing, sleeping
I am your shield, when darkness reveals it's ugly self
I am your shield, nothing could ever remove from your side
