You say I left and got corrupted, changed for the worse and became destructive Shake my hand and act obnoxious, not your fault it is subconscious
New report I'm a bad influence, and do not fall into congruence
With all your man made policies, don't turn this into a tragedy

The wreckage is overlooked, cause the gossip has got
you hooked
The wreckage always destroys, cause of the jealousy
you employ

I'd laugh it off but my family's mentioned, it hurts beyond all comprehension Time to own up to damage down, hear the pain of a loved one shunned
Their tolerance has now run dry, your guilt can't look them in the eye
Can't blame this tension on anyone, your own judgment has just begun

The wreckage is overlooked, cause the gossip has got
you hooked
The wreckage always destroys, cause of the jealousy
you employ

Double talks a native tongue, for hate filled hypocrisy
In my face praises sung, behind my back catastrophe

The wreckage is overlooked, cause the gossip has got
you hooked
The wreckage always destroys, cause of the jealousy
you employ
