I'm always assuming the worst
But you're going on none the less
And there's nothing to cushion your heart led fall
Letters from further away
Keep pulling me close to home
And they're something to cushion my callous sighs

And I know that you hope for Longer goodbyes
Embracing for forever
And falling in your eyes
In your eyes
Your eyes

Pouring over photographs
I'm living in your letters
Breath deeply from this envelope, it smells like you
And I can't be without that scent, it's filling me
With all you mean to me
To me

Continually failing these trials
But you stand by me none the less
And you won't let me sink though I'm begging you
I'm begging you

Phone calls from further away
And messages on my machine
But I don't ever tell you this distance seems terrible

There's no need to test my heart
With useless space
These roads go on forever
There'll always be a place
For you, in my heart

So I'll hit the pavement, it's gotta be better then waiting
And pushing you far away cause I'm scared
So I'll take my chances and head on my way up there
Cause turning to you is like falling in love when you're
