Gwen, congratulations
You took a man who was strong and you made him do wrong tonight
Gwen, I fought temptation
But the fire in my soul burned out of control tonight

You were the spider I was the fly
You weaved your web so well I couldnt run
Ive got a woman waiting at home
She believes in me what have I done, what have I done?

Gwen, how can I face her?
When I left you Gwen and I fell into sin tonight

You were the spider I was the fly
You weaved your web so well I couldnt run
Ive got a woman waiting at home
She believes in me what have I done, what have I done?

Gwen, how can I face her?
When I left you Gwen and I fell into sin tonight
Gwen, congratulations
Gwen, congratulations
