Show me what makes you stand up
When everything turns to ashes

Paralyzed
By my own senses holding me
Up by the throat
The signs all are overwhelming
Mistakes and mistakes building

Hold on
To what you can when
Everything is stripped away
The lies and fight and blood and tears will Flood the lungs they breathe with

Hold on when the time comes
You'll see that the pain was not in vain

Hole up in your own perception
Wrap yourself in the lies
That shield you from
The life you've forfeit - for what?

Well, not me, not anymore
This time is mine, I will stand up for
The ones who cannot stand themselves

When your destruction comes,
Will you crawl
On your hands and knees?

When this moment comes,
Will you stand up and fight?

Will you stand up and fight?

Or will you fall like the rest?

When your destruction comes,
Will you crawl
On your hands and knees?
When this moment comes,

Will you stand up and fight?

(Stand up and fight)

Will you let this moment define you?
Or will you let it break you?

When your destruction comes,
Will you crawl
On your hands and knees?
When this moment comes,
Will you stand up and fight?

Stand up and fight
When this moment comes, will you fight?
Will you stand up and fight
(Crawl on your hands and knees)

When this moment comes,
Will you stand up and fight?
