Welcome
Into an existence
Content without questioning limits

You decide
What is it all worth
To see or uphold
The ignorant

This is your life
So paint it
How you see fit

How you see fit
How you see fit

So if you won't open your eyes,
You're a fool
This time has never been so crucial
This is your chance
To prove you're more
Than another stain on the human canvas

The human canvas

Just believe
And let the doubts subside
This is an invitation

Welcome into an existence
Where no one believes in resistance

This was your life
To transform
You could've been so much more

Than you could ever believe
Until you fell

So if you won't open your eyes,
You're a fool
This time has never been so crucial

This is your chance
To prove you're more
Than another stain on the human canvas

The human canvas

So if you won't open your eyes,
You're a fool
This time has never been so crucial

This is your chance
(This is your chance
To prove you're more)
Prove you're more
Than the human canvas

The human canvas
