One life and another
Million to lose
This is where it all begins

Think about your life
And everyone you love
What would you
Give up for them?

I'll just ignore the lies
Pretend that it's alright
Just look past your face
I know it's not alright

How can I believe
In something that seems so naïve,
When even my own truths
Seem only to deceive me?

And I
Don't know
Where to hide
Just keep on running until
The thoughts subside

One more second's gone
Another moment lost
Just think what could've been
But never mind the cost

I'll just ignore the lies
Pretend I know what's right
Even though I know
That I can't win this fight

The gears that turn with
A ticking vengeance in mind
Forcing bliss on us all
The echoes far behind

What is there to lose
You cannot stop these hands

Collecting on the debt that
Every life demands

So take advantage of
The time that we have left
Before your time will come

To watch it all fall down
As it all fades away
Where do we go now
When we should have
Held on?
But what matters now
Once it all fades away?
And the hand stops

I'll just ignore the lies
Pretend that it's alright
I'll just look past your face
I know it's not alright

Just let it go
Let it go
Sit here and wait

I know how hard
Is is to look past this
For something more to believe
And not my own

My own
My own

To watch it all fall down
As it all fades away
Where do we go now?

To watch it all fall down
As it all fades away
And it crashes
Down

It falls down

You watched it drown

You cannot stop
This hand from ticking away
It's counting down
Counting down
