With open eyes I see now
That every turn brings nothing
But destruction and ignorance

Take my hand and I will
Guide you through this storm
Have faith in what I give you
When all you know is torn

When you step through
The path I laid before you
Will you remember?

How can you save me
When you can't save yourself?
What do you believe
When you watch it come down?
You brought this on yourself

On yourself
On yourself

Oh

What does it mean now that you
Consider what's brought before you

The empty promises about to break you
I cannot deceive
Those who believe in me
You brought this on yourself

When it opens up
And you look towards the sky
You will see mercy
Denied

See me as I bleed
You brought this on yourself

How can you save me
When you can't save yourself?

What do you believe
When you watch it come down?
You brought this on your...

How can you save me
When you can't save yourself?
What do you believe
When you watch it come down?
You brought this on your...
