Now I know so consider your-self told
You fall for two women your living a joke
This will be my coming down
The final curtain, the final frown
Cause that aint love, no that's a lie
I know this baby I wont deny
The cold inside, the cold is good
And I know I shouldn't go down

Cherry lane, I walk down that street again
Cherry lane, I walk down that street again
I know I wont give it up this time
Ive been walking down a thin, thin line
Till they feel like, the one and the same
Right down
Cherry lane

A boy is a boy, but a girl is a charm
That musnt be broken, musnt be harmed
You must hold her gently, what else can you do?
And you know you shouldn't go down

Cherry lane, I walk down that street again
Cherry lane, I walk down that street again
I know I wont give it up this time
Ive been walking down a thin, thin line
Till they feel like, the one and the same
Right down
Cherry lane

Who says whats right? You cant see
You aint free from being guilty
Crawling so close to the line
Any maybe just one more time down

Cherry lane, I walk down that street again
Cherry lane, I walk down that street again
I know I wont give it up this time
Ive been walking down a thin, thin line
Till they feel like, the one and the same
Right down

Cherry lane
