"Hey there" she said "Looking good"
"What you doing tonight?"
One look and I know I cant control
This feeling stirring inside

Cause its not love, its something more
It will brake love, throw to the floor, yeah

Darling id love to feel that way
And stand right by your side
Lucille come to take me away
Cause tonight love aint on my mind, alright

I shake my head, what im doing is wrong
Will this moment pass me by?
I know ill regret it, just try and forget it
This feeling just wont subside

Cause its not love, its something more
It will brake love, throw to the floor, yeah

Darling id love to feel that way
And stand right by yoyr sie
Lucille come to take me away
Cause tonight love aint on my mind, alright

Darling id love to feel that way
And stand right by your side
Lucille come to take me away
Cause tonight love aint on my mind
And Lucille, with your golden hair
Why you plague me this way?
Oh lord I was in love with a woman
But hey "she" led me astray

Lucille
