I lost my heart to a dancer
An easy pick up for chancers
What she saw in me, I don't know (Oh yeah)
When she said she'd been behaving
I found it hard to stop myself from laughing
I think that I'll head off, in fact
You'd better dig me in deep guys
I won't be coming back (Oh yeah)

What's that you said, my love?
Yes, I know what you've been through
And that's why I can't stay
We can no longer cheat you
What's that you said, my love?
Yes, I know what you've been through
And that's why I can't stay
We can no longer cheat you

I lost my heart to a dancer
An easy pick up for chancers
What she saw in me, I don't know (Oh yeah)
She became depressed, that's down to boredom
She should have said
I could have scored some things to pass the time
Or took her out
Yeah turning in at eight
What's that about? (Oh yeah)

What's that you said, my love?
Yes, I know what you've been through
And that's why I can't stay
We can no longer cheat you
What's that you said, my love?
Yes, I know what you've been through
And that's why I can't stay
We can no longer cheat you
