I hope you
Only once I told a lie
I hope these days go on forever,
And I'm always right by your side.
You're all I want to know
For the rest of my life!
I can't help what time is done,
And how long I had to wait
Now I found your hand in mine
I hope I didn't come too late
There's no beauty like your face in the morning light!

Chorus:

And all my life I have been so scared
And I never knew I never wanted you there
I've been broke, been bust, been snared
So love lost and under-prepared, baby
And now that I found you, now that I've got you
I've got everything, my dear!

Cause you mean everything to me, my dear,
You mean everything to me my dear!
I see you in my thoughts, and I hear you in my sleep
And now that I've found you,
Now that I've got you
I've got everything!
And I feel like a runaway train
If I hold you like I wanna. You would never go away
My dear, hear me when I say!

Chorus:

And whole my life I have been so scared
And I never knew I never wanted you there
I've been broke, been bust, been snared
So love lost and underprepared, baby

And now that I found you, now that I've got you
I've got everything, my dear!

I love you sleeping with your socks on
And I love you all day in the house
I love your smile in the morning
And I love your head upon my chest
I miss your kisses in the evening (baby when your away)
And I miss my heads on your hips (baby when your away)
And I miss the smell of your perfume
And the lipstick on your lips!

Chorus:

all my life I have been so scared
And I never knew I never wanted you there
I've been broke, been bust, been snared
So love lost and under-prepared, baby
And now that I found you, now that I've got you
Now that I found you
Now that I've got you
Now that I found you
Now that I've got you
I've got everything my dear!
