Walk, over the stones drive lonely
Till like I'm feel the ground shakes
Deep down below me
I shame of the breath I take, I know
I shame to be fearful
IÂ´m here, IÂ´m here, still sitting alone in a crater
Waiting to feel my soul shake
A spectator
Nobody saw me leave, I know
Nobody's waiting
Fissures have opened
Deep within my heart
Dreams are broken
The planet falls apart
You, I know in these ruins I'll find you
And then we won't need to discuss
And discuss
While will tremble
IÂ´ll kiss you within the temple, I know
One moment sweet and gentle
Fissures have opened
Deep within my heart
Dreams are broken
The planet falls apart
When the shaking is passed
Wake me up then
Wake me up
