I can really safely say
That you're still alive
One thing they can't take away
Is your will to survive

I know I won't believe it
I know I won't believe it
They say that you cannot be found
This man is better off dead

They want to turn your head around
Turn your head around
Turn your head around
Turn your head around

How can they leave you lying there
Hiding from the lights?
They don't know and they couldn't scare
They'll be dead by tonight

I know I won't believe it
I know I won't believe it
They say that you cannot be found
This man is better off dead, better off dead

Someone's made a big mistake
I can't believe my ears
Just how long will this thing take
Give him days, months and years

I know I won't believe it
I know I won't believe it
They say that you cannot be found
This man is better off dead

They want to turn your head around
Turn your head around
Turn your head around
Turn your head around

Turn your head around
Turn your head around

Turn your head around
Turn your head around

Turn your, turn your
Turn your head around
Turn your, turn your
Turn your head around

Turn your, turn your
Turn your head around
Turn your, turn your
Turn your head around

Turn your, turn your
Turn your head around
Turn your, turn your
