Way down in Mexico
There's a crazy little chick that I know
In a honky tonk on the outskirts of town
Where the music's hot and the lights turned down
Blue moon baby, yeah-yes, blue moon baby

Well, sittin' in a dark corner
Wears a skirt that's wrapped around real tight
She look into your eyes and you realize
That you don't feel well and then wrong is right
Blue moon baby, yeah-yes, blue moon baby

Won't you buy me a drink of tequila
Won't you buy me a glass of wine
I can sit with you for an hour or two
Would you like a little bit of my time
Mmm, blue moon baby, yeah-yes, blue moon baby

Blue moon gal will make you wear a purple heart
Blue moon gal will tear your heart apart
Blue moon gal will take your money if she can Turn around and find... another man
Blue moon baby, yeah-yes, blue moon baby

Oh-oh-oh, ooh-ooh-ooh, mmm-mmm-mmm
